TERRORMOLINOS - an outrageous holiday spoof set on the Costa Brava, created by the authors of the cult hit HAMPSTEAD. You must survive a two week package holiday - and return home with ten snapshots to prove it!

TERRORMOLINOS takes you to the world of the saucy seaside postcard. Every successful snap develops on screen while you watch. But beware, because every time you make a fatal error, your embarrassing position is colourfully depicted in SAUCIVISION - the unique graphics system patented by the authors. In TERRORMOLINOS every holiday disast... can come true! So why spend a fortune going abroad when you can get gippy tummy in the privacy of your living room?
